INTERVIEW SUMMARY

This summarizes a telephone interview conducted January 31, 2006 in connection with the above-identified application by and between the undersigned attorney and Examiner Daniel Previl at the U.S. Patent Office. During the interview the undersigned attorney explained to the Examiner why Claims 1, 6, 12 and related dependent claims were not anticipated by the disclosure of Anderson U.S. Patent 5,764, 142. He also explained to the Examiner why independent Claim 21 and its dependent claims were not anticipated by Tice U.S. Patent 5,659,292.

The Examiner in response to the undersigned attorney's explanations indicated that he would consult with his Supervisory Patent Examiner. No agreement was reached relative to the pending claims.

In the event that the above summary is incomplete or erroneous, it is requested that the Examiner call such incompletenesses or erroneousnesses to the attention of the undersigned for purposes of correcting same.

Respectfully submitted,

SECOND INTERVIEW SUMMARY

The following is a summary of an interview conducted by telephone with Examiner Previl on February 1, 2006 in connection with the above-identified application. During the interview Claim1 was discussed with the Examiner as well as the disclosure and teachings of Tice U.S. Patent 5,659,292 and reference was also made to Anderson et al. U.S. Patent 5,764,142.

As a result of that discussion, the Examiner agreed that pending Claims 1, 3, 4-20 as well as 43 and 44 were allowable or allowed. Agreement was also reached with the Examiner that Claims 21-28 would be cancelled without prejudice to Applicant's opportunity to file a continuation application and continue to prosecute those claims.

The Examiner indicated that with canceling Claims 21-28 by Examiner's

Amendment that he would issue a Notice of Allowability of the remaining pending claims.

In the event that the above is not an accurate summary of the subject interview, it is requested that any errors or omissions be called to the attention of the undersigned attorney for inclusion into this summary.
